Rev. Mr. W. Webster, a southern evangelist with ability and religion enough to set up any community for Christ and the Church, is now in the midst of one of the most interesting revival meetings that has been held in the First Baptist Church for some time. He is a speaker of great influence on his hearers, he is an earnest man, and he isn't afraid to work out on the streets. He has been preaching to crowded houses all week and last night two young men joined the Church. Tonight he will preach again, and with the singer, Mr. H. H. Miller, they will sing. And one evening coming to the Lord. Suppose you go out and hear him if you haven't already done so. He will preach both morning and evening tomorrow, and after evening service the ordinance of baptism will be administered.

About fifty guests assembled at the delightful home of Miss Ficklin last night to enjoy a dance given in honor of Miss Robinson of Florence, Ala. The house was decorated with beautiful palms and blooming fall flowers, and the carpets were covered with fine linens. Miss Perry and Prof. Buell furnished the music to the company glided. The reception line consisted of Mrs. Robert Ficklin, mother of the bride, and her two daughters, exquisitely handsome in an embroidered waist, black organza skirt, with diamonds. Miss Robinson, the petite guest of honor, was adorned in pink organdy over taffeta, carrying flowers, being bred in old Kentucky she bears the stamp of beautiful women and chic girls. Then Miss Hattie Dohms, in muslin dress, sole over taffeta; Miss Sallie Hall, white Paris muslin; then the fair daughter of the house, Miss Ficklin, who is a prototyp of her mother, in white muslin, satin trimmings, and diamonds. Delicious refreshments were served and it was a late hour, long past the appointed time, when the home ceased to be merry.

"A BREEZY TIME" AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

The fundamental principle of "A Breezy Time" is to entertain and amuse, and work up to the idea the author has given of an amusing and well-told story that departs from the usual lines, and Fitz and Webster's clever company has succeeded in doing this in a most interesting entertainment. Millions from the fact that it not only has all the elements of music and fun, but it's story is coherent and full of interest.

The author of "A Breezy Time" has been happily impregnated with music, songs, dances and amusing specialty features, all of which are introduced in a natural and perfectly legitimate manner and the presentation gives a bright and crisp entertainment.

The finale of the last act was arranged by Fitz and Webster, in which they introduce a number of "Breezy" acts, closing the show with a grand cast walk by the entire company.

Be sure and see "A Breezy Time" at the Opera-house tonight and have a good time.

If the gentleman who so cleverly borrowed the name of his neighbor can't be killed between January 1 and November 1, the killing of rabbits will be between January 1 and August 1. There is no restriction placed upon the killing of rabbits, but it is generally accepted as the proper time after the first frost. The law is dead, so the law against taking food being invoked should the rabbit be sold during warm weather.

The game laws of Kentucky provide that it shall be unlawful to kill or damage any possession or property of the state or any person, and the law is to be observed.

"I am not entitled to the vote of any man who does not favor the Election Law."—William Godbold of Birmingham.

"I will be as liberal as Mr. Gaskell. I do not want the vote of any man who is in favor of the Election Law."—W. S. Taylor of London.

The talk of dissatisfaction in the Republican ranks is all nonsense. The party was never more united and never was there brighter chances of success.

With Hon. WILLIAM H. COX for the Senate and Colonel JOHN Y. DEAN for Representative, Mason county has a legislative ticket that can't be beat.

ADMIRAL DEWEY doesn't seem to think the United States Government is making any mistake in making its control of the Philippines complete and permanent.

The Presidential election will occur next year. This is the year for the Republicans to "get together" on their state and country tickets, so they can carry the state next year.

The exports of the calendar year 1899 are likely to be the largest in our history, in spite of the doleful predictions made as to the prospective effect of the Ding Law upon our foreign markets.

True money in the country has increased nearly 33 per cent in the three years since Mr. BRYAN and his followers were trying to make us believe that only free coinage could cause an increase in our currency.

It seems that the advance in the prices of beef is not altogether chargeable to the "Beef Trust." Reports from Chicago quote the prices for live steers $6.90 per hundred as the highest paid in September since 1884. Can it be possible that the farmers have organized a Live Steer Trust of their own?

PEOPLES who are inclined to criticize the conduct of the world seem to contrast it with those of Spain in those islands General Rivera, in the first year of his campaign against the Filipinos, lost 8,000 prisoners, 1,000 killed or mortally wounded, and 2,000 disabled by disease, making a total of 11,000, or 46 per cent of his entire command. General Oris, in the eight months of his campaign, has lost 233 men killed, 92 dead from wounds, 470 incapacitated from disease, and no prisoners, making the total 815, or about 24 per cent of his entire command.

MR. BRYAN's friends of the Silver Trust have their chance now. President KROGER, it is said, has "threatened to destroy and close up the gold mines in the Transvaal in case of war with England. If the silver people could sufficiently encourage "Ooh Paul" to bring such action they might stand some show of again getting recognition for their metal as money. But unless the great gold mines of the world and their enormous output are checked by some such process the world's dissatisfaction with the free coinage of silver will continue to grow.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGraw of New Sarria died a few days ago.

The two-year-old son of John W. INKEE died of brain fever at the family home at Kenmare.

Laugier is the parent of longevity. See "A Fresh Finn" and "A Fresh Fader." At the Washington Opera house to-night.

The one play which none should miss this season is Lewis Morrison's "Faust," which comes to us on its farewell tour soon.

Colonel John I. WINTER is getting ready for more business. He recently purchased a half interest in the Ohio Furniture Company at Manchester.

The weekly earnings of the L. and N. for the fourth week of October were $20,000, an increase of $10,483 over the corresponding week of 1888.

Mr. G. B. Burkam, Editor of the Cincinnati Times-Star, in company with his handsome bride, was a passenger yesterday on the Eastbound train.

Mr. William S. Smith having resigned, Mr. Allen A. Edmunds has been appointed one of DeKalb's Representatives at the meeting of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., to be held next week at Paducah.

A trial of the veterans of the Kentucky State Kentucky Infantry and the Tennessee Cavalry, held this week at Frankfort, the address of welcome was made by Captain W. G. Dearing, with responses by Mr. C. C. Deppen, Mr. W. R. Maltby of Paducah, and a few other speakers.

Thousands of the most stubborn and dissenting cases of piles have been cured by Tabor's Hukle Root Ointment. It never fails to cure. Price, 50 cents in bottles, tubes 25 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

The "Tabor's Root" Ointment, which is to be published during November will include two double numbers with decorated covers. One of these will be the annual Announcement Number, out October 19th. It will contain a full illustrated Prospectus of the coming volume for 1890.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

THE PACING FUTURITY.

It Took Seven Hours to Decide the 2:01 Trot at the Lexington Races on Friday Afternoon.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 7.—The crowd fell a little from that of Transylvania day, but it still was large. The October weather had a bitter bite which made overcoats necessary. Otherwise the weather was all that could be wished and the track was in fine condition. The pacing futurity, which should have been a feature of the day, was a farce. Glory broke repeatedly in both heats and so badly in the last that Lulu May distanced her.

The 2:17 pace, first on the card, was a big surprise. Tom Wilkes sold for $25 to $15 in the first heat and $20 to $10 in the second. The second heat was a close one. For third Wilkes for $20, $10, but the favorite broke at the head of the stretch and finished second. Carmelita won in happy fashion from Billy George. Carmelita was made favorite on the next heat, selling for $50 in field $25. She took the next two heats with but little trouble.

It took seven heats to decide the 2:21 trot. A schedule of betting by heats shows how bettors tried to hedge.

May C was original favorite and after the first heat was beaten in the second.

For third Wilkes for $20, $10, but the favorite broke at the head of the stretch and finished second.

Carrollton won in happy fashion from Billy George. Carrollton was made favorite on the next heat, selling for $50 in field $25. She took the next two heats with but little trouble.
